Truths. Gossip about our neighbors, is the most cowardly and contemptible thing on earth.

If your neighbor is in trouble, help him, don't pray for him, but give him potatoes-this is what he needs. The friendship of Childhood is unselfish and disinterested; the friendship fof manhood; is often from policy and self-inter-

In modern life, truth is the most unpopular thing in the wo ld.

Why try to find out the mind

Search our own hearts that we may understand ourselves. Great men in all ages have made their fortunes, both knowledge and money, by strictly attending to their own affairs.

Knowledge needs no defense. Ignorance is always on the de-

The Companion as a Christmas

Nobody is too young, nobody too old, to enjoy reading The Youth's Companion. For that reason it makes one of the most appropriate of Christmas giftsone of the few whose actual worth far outweighs the cost. Welcome as the paper may be to the casual reader on the train, at the office, in the public library, it is, after all, the paper of the home. The regularity and frequency of its visits, the cordial sincerity of its tone, make for it soon the place of a familiar friend in the house. Like a good friend, too, it stands always for those traits and qualities which are typified in the ideal home, and are the sources of a nation's health and true prosperity. Is there another Christmas present costing so little that equals it?

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscribers all the remaining issues of The Companion for 1907 and the four-leaf hanging calendar for 1908 in full color.

Full illustrated annouoncement of the new volume for 1908 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free.
